Writing

I would like to tell you something about patriotism.

Patriotism is a feeling of support for the country you live in. It's when people feel proud of their country and are ready to defend it anytime. Being a patriot is important for everybody.

The person, who is proud of his city and country, feels much happier that others. That's why I think that being a patriot is good.

Patriots are ready to do a lot for their country. In hard times they can even sacrifice their lives for the well-being of the whole country.

Yuri Gagarin was a patriot. He was a Russian cosmonaut. He was the first man, who made a journey into outer space. He made this only for his country. He died, but will be always remembered in Russia.

Unfortunately, there are lots of false patriots nowadays. All they think about is money.
