What is patriotism?

To my mind, it is difficult to describe in a few words. Everybody should love our planet, should help each other.

There are two points of view of this problem. On the one hand some people of elder generation think there is not enough patriotism in young people's characters. They say, teenagers are interested only in computer games. On the other hand, young people are considered to be proud of their Motherland and to give everything to make their country rich and happy. I think, patriotic feelings are still alive. The examples of them can be found in heroic behavior of our soldiers in Syria, Caucasus, Afganistan. They are not afraid to die to protect their homeland. They fight bravely with the enemy, risking their own lives. Sence of duty and patriotism give them strength and courage.

In conclusion, I can say that everyone should love his Motherland, despite being a patriot or not.
